

WM. SIMPSON's good four-year-old colt Stately, by Hummer, son of Electioneer, bids fair to be a great performer this season if he continues to improve. He won the 2:18 pace at Boston, June 26, in straight heats, going the second mile in 2:13. Mascot Jr., the much-touted gelding by Wilkes Hurrah, finished 8, 9, 10.

ANTIDOTE, the brown stallion by Anteros that won the 2:27 class pace at Boston, June 26, and took a record of 2:17, is out of Miss Wilton, by old Blue Bull 75, grandam Sally Beaver (dam of Spurrier Boy, 2:30), by Coulter's Davy Crockett. He was bred by Conrad Bros., Peru, Ind.

Speed and Breeding

Owing to positive retirement from horse business will sacrifice the following three great animals which we had reserved from our catalogue:

The fast, game pacer CYRUS, Record 2:14 1-4. It is needless to call horsemen's attention to the poor handling of Cyrus and balance of our horses the past two seasons. In ordinary hands Cyrus can beat 2:10. He can beat any horse in this coast races of two to four mile heats. He can win himself out in first race. He is also a great roadhorse.

FRANCISCA, one of the greatest daughters of Almont 33 that the late General Withers, of Lexington, Ken., ever bred. With colt by Direct, 2:05, at her side. Price $300
