GOLDEN GATE FAIR ENTRIES.

List of Entries to the Great Blue Ribbon Meeting.

The list of entries to the Blue Ribbon meeting of the Colden Gate Fair Association, is published below, and shows better than volumes of praise the interest being taken in trotting and pacing races in California this year. of events did not have the required number of entries (lacking only a few in each, however), so the Board of Directors decided to re-open them offering the same amounts, for each race, at five per cent entrance fee. Every horse owner on the Coast should send in entries at once, if they have colts or fillies eligible to these events. The track at Oakland is in better condition this year than it has ever been, and from present indications the race meeting to be given by the Golden Gate Fair Association, will surpass all that have heretofore been held by this progressive organization.

The Horse From Birth to Death,

His care, management and treatment, by H. Fedderson, published by The Humane World, of St. Paul, Minnesota, bas just been issued, and is a little book full of practical suggestions and illustrations in regard to the horse, speaking of the education, barness, shoeing, working and driving, watering and feeding, care of hoofs, teetb and eyes, the stable, balky horses, character and disposition, old age, etc. It is neatly printed and illustrated throughout, and is a very valuable book for all lovers and owners of the horse. Price fifteen cents, postage paid.

Is Your Mare Barren?

"No more small purses for horsemen," is the walch-word of the Trolling Horse Breeders' Association. If that meets your approval, read the liberal conditions offered in their advertise-ment of this week, and send in your entries.

The Palo Alto Sale.

There is considerable talk about a coming auction sale among all who love to ride behind a good horse or a good team, and that sale is the one to be held at Palo Alto next Thursday. Every one who has ever had the pleasure of driving a stylish, handsome, pure-gaited trotter will come to this sale, hecause opportunities will be offered for securing individuals suitable for their purposes that will not be found at any auction sale of its kind in California. In New York, well-bred geldings that show breeding, speed and style bring any auction sale of its kind in California. In New York, well-bred geldings that show breeding, speed and style bring splendid prices, but it is not expected that the individuals in the consignment next Thursday will bring exorbitant figures. The catalogue contains the names of many that will not only prove first-class roadsters, but race horses as well. These animals have never been worked for speed. Only sons and daughters of the immortal Electioneer received that benefit; therefore, with the excellent breeding on the sire's side as well as on the dam's side, and with the freedom from all allments and blemishes, and baving been cared for and fed ever since they were foaled in the best manner possible, buyers run no risk in securing any one of those offered. A number of them will make splendidly matched teams, and as such to a shrewd buyer they will bring a high price in this city. Who knows but that there is a number of colts or fillies as fast as Answer, 2:141, in the consignment?

Besides these grandly-looking geldings and young mares, there are four a hendidly-hred stallions, Alfred, 2:25 (sire of Langton, 2:213), Benefit 5327, Alson and Lawrence 5388, and colts by Electioneer's best sons out of mares that are bred in the purple. Owners of stock farms who desire to keep up with the fashion should attend this sale and pick up a few of those to be sold. They will never regret making the purchase, for well-bred horses will bring more next year than they do to-day. Remember the sale takes place next Thursday, April 26th, at the Palo Alto Stock Farm. Trains leave Fourth and Townsend streets at 8:15 and 10:40 A. M. Parties will purchase tickets for Palo Alto Stock Farm. Stock may be seen on and after next Monday at the farm. Be sure and attend this sale. This is the last notice.

The District Fair.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors the Sonoma and Marin Agricultural Society was held at the city hall Saturday afternoon, Vice-President Asa Higgins in the chair and Directors R. S. Brown, W. D. Houx, J. B. Burdell and E. W. Hayden, and Secretary Thomas Maclay being present, says the Petaluma Imprint.

After the transaction of business of minor importance, the After the transaction of business of minor importance, the Board received a delegation consisting of committees from several granger in this district. The business of the delegation was to request the Board to hold the fair later in the season. The request was made that our fair be beld during the week following the Stockton Fair, as at that time far better displays could be made by our farmers.

The delegation was then officially notified that it was now too late to change the date for this season, as the dates for the different circuits had been all arranged, but the Agricultural Society people promised that after this year they would endeavor to bave the fair held at a later period. The Board then adjourned until the first Saturday of next month.

It is the duty of the horsemen of the coast to stand by the Trotting Horse Breeders' Association since the association has done much for their interests by encouraging other associations to offer more liberal terms. They must remember tbat the failure of the Summer Meeting of this association would mean the future discontinuance of these large purses and liberal conditions. Let them remember that they are working for themselves in supporting this association, and send in liberal lists of entries

Wednesday quite a galaxy of racers could be seen on the Pleasanton track at one time. They were Diablo, 2:09\(\); Pirect, 2:05\(\); Cyrus, 2:14\(\); Rosita A., 2:15\(\)\(\); Rosa C., 2:16\(\); Little Hope, 2:23, and Argenta, a filly without a mark, that can step along with the best of them.—Direct.

THE skeletons of the famous stallions Occident, Palo Alto and Electioneer, bave been removed from the private stables of the late Senator Stanford to the University museum.

UNTIL a horse learns to score steadily he has a very slim chance of getting money in this fast age.
