Improve the Score Cards.

If the secretaries of tracks would reflect a moment we are confident they would be more particular in their printed programmes and score cards.

There are a number of secretaries to whom this word of advice does not apply, those who have already gauged the sentiment of their patrons, and their programmes are all that could be desired in point of completeness. There are others, however, that seem to give this important matter little or no attention.

It might have been well enough in the days of Lady Suffolk or Flora Temple to print a programme without indicating the blood lines of the contestants, but in these times of widespread knowledge of the different families of trotters, such hackwood methods won't do. With the majority of track patrons the race is robbed of half its interest by a failure to give the breeding of the contestants. If there be a secretary who doubts this let him take a seat in the grand stand of an afternoon when he has issued a card omitting the horses' breeding, and he will become convinced of the truth of what we state.

It is desirable for associations to put forth every legitimate effort to attract and to retain patronage. No thoroughly up-to-date association will let slip an opportunity of catering to every reasonable wish of its patrons.

Programmes and score cards with breeding of contestants given are both desirable and reasonable.—Horse Breeder.

Grand French Coach Stallion and Percherons.

Twice next week there will be exhibited at the Golden Gate Fair a lot of the very finest horses of their class ever brought into California. We refer to the Percherons and French Coach stallion now at Scott & McCord's stables, opposite Bay District track. This stock simply defies criticism. The horses speak for themselves. They are duly registered in the stud books of France and America, and cost an immense sum of money. The animals must be sold by a certain date, and no reasonable sum will be refused. Every one fortunate enough to see these horses pronounce them the grandest individuals their eyes ever feasted on. E. C. Godfrey, of 33 Crocker Building, this city, would be pleased to give any information to intending buyers regarding them, and lovers of a good horse should by all means go out and look them over.

ROMAIRE, San Luis Rey, Adolph, Mutineer, Bernardo, Miranda (by Conrad—Mamie T.), Lizard (by Surinam—Trampo, dam of Blizzard), four-year-old brown gelding by imp. Cheviot—Mistleteo, by Thad Stevens (a maiden), Talbot Clifton (brother to Conrad) and Bridal Veil, of the McCarty string, are in training at Newman, Stanislaus county. Harry McCarty came up from the ranch this week, and reports considerable improvement in some of the horses. For instance, Adolph has become tractable enough to enable them to drive him in a cart. Bernardo has been taking mud baths in the San Joaquin river, and his legs are sound as a dollar now. Silver Plate, the little Nee Ban filly owned by Talbot Clifton, is safely in foal to imp. Trade Wind, as is Trampo, the dam of Blizzard. Speaking of Trade Wind, he was bred this season to about thirty mares. Among the mares that went to him were the dams of Mezzotint and Castanet, Mamie T., Todd's Only by C. H. Todd, Kathleen by Hock Hocking—Mamie T., Frances (sister to Ragna), Victress, by Jim Brown, Fannie Parnell (dam of Sonoma Boy), four or five Hock Hocking mares, Lady Partisan by imp. Partisan, Alice T., Uranus, a mare by Bryant W.—by Joe Daniels, Josie G., by Gano, Santa Catalina and a number of others in that section.

WM. CORBITT, proprietor of the San Mateo Stock Farm started for Terre Haute last Tuesday. He wants to see the races there, as he is very much interested. Muta Wilkes, 2:11, Oro Wilkes, 2:15 (bis favorite), Lesa Wilkes, 2:20 1/2, will start there. That he will see his well-bred horses perform in a creditable manner is a foregone conclusion.

URANIA, winner last Tuesday at Saratoga, should be a good one on her breeding, being by the great Hanover from the famous race mare Wanda, by imp. Mortemer.

EXPRESSIVE, by Electioneer, lowered her record to 2:15 in the fourth heat of her race at Buffalo last Monday.
